A Prayer in Spring

Oh, give us pleasure in the flowers today;
And give us not to think so far away
As the uncertain harvest; keep us here
All simply in the springing of the year.

Oh, give us pleasure in the orchard white,
Like nothing else by day, like ghosts by night;
And make us happy in the happy bees,
The swarm dilating round the perfect trees.

And make us happy in the darting bird
That suddenly above the bees is heard,
The meteor that thrusts in with needle
bill,
And off a blossom in mid-air stands still.

For this is love and nothing else is love,
The which it is reserved for God above To sanctify to what far ends He will,
But which it only needs that we fulfil.

Future victories begin with embracing change today, followed by change tomorrow, and change the day after that as well.
