Old Wives Tales

If we look backwards and see what the gardeners of yesteryear suggested, how they helped the vegetables and flowers.

Beer: they suggested that beer bottles should be rinsed out with water and put on flowers like Hollyhocks

Milk Cartons/Bottles rinse and use as liquid manure for your houseplants.

Banana skins: Place them around your roses just below the surface. They will rot quickly and release calcium, magnesium, sulphates and silica.

Tea Leaves/ripped tea bags: use as a mulch on Camellias

Old tights: these can be used as tree ties.

Boots: never heard of this one before. Bury old leather boots and they will decay eventually and will turn into manure. Make sure there is no plastic or rubber.

Egg cartons: use by putting compost in the egg positions and sow seeds on your windowsill.

Think of using these tips as a method of recycling and the non-use of chemicals.

GOSPEL

We are the children of light,
Wise, not companioned
By goats
In a condemned graveyard.

Backward blowing
Blizzards of memory
Flatten out
The genealogies.

But here a point,
The objective essence
We work in.
We shall not drink from the stink-pots.

Propaganda,
Gospel spread
With tin shovels,
We are this generation.

Carlow Library Services.

Call & Collect Whilst Carlow Library is not fully open, you can still request books. On the 8th June last, Carlow County Council Library Service launched the Call and Collect initiative for people around the county who require library books. Carlow County Council Library Service staff have been busy working behind the scenes putting plans in place to safely provide a limited lending service to the people around the county in need of reading material. Library staff will make every effort within current constraints to locate specific requests and more general stock selections will be available. When ready, your books can be collected at a pre- arranged time and date whilst adhering to all the Health & Safety protocols in place during Covid-19 from your local library branch.
