Things That Never Die

The pure, the bright, the beautiful

that stirred our hearts in youth,

The impulses to wordless
prayer,

The streams of love and
truth,

The longing after something lost,

The spirit's longing cry,

The striving after better hopes-

These things that never die.

Charles Dickens

(1812-1870)

An Gairdin Beo is organising four cookery classes on ZOOM.

The classes will be directed by Majella Johnson. Majella will base her recipes on the herbs, fruits and vegetables grown in An Gairdin Beo.

The dates for the workshops are as follows:

Monday 12th April, Monday 19th April, Monday 26th April
Monday 3rd May. Each session is from 10 a.m. - 11.30 a.m.

The workshops are free, but you must book your place in advance. Please send your name, postal address, and email address to: fdunne@kcetb.ie before 2nd April

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER '21

The signs that Jesus gives are to be understood by Faith. So, we see Peter preaching conversion as he has told us to do. Conversion is possible because Christ stands as our Advocate before the Father.

ACTIONS TO HELP TRANSFORM YOUR WORLD.

- 46. Demonstrate a peaceful environment at home.
- 47. Use your vote, participate in your country's decision making process.
- 48. Be respectful and peaceful in standing up for what you believe in.

(SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOAL 16 PEACE, JUSTICE AND STRONG INSTITUTIONS)

Thanks to Pádraig Webb for this input.

The Bishops want to know: What would be your preferred option for engagement in a conversation process about a national synod?

The Irish Catholic Bishops announced at their Winter 2020 meeting a new Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland, leading to the holding of a National Synodal Assembly within the next five years. Before embarking on an initial two-year phase of consultation, bishops are inviting submissions between Easter (5 April) and Pentecost (23 May), 2021 to reflect on what methods/models would be best to adopt in these coming two years of conversations. For example: focus groups, parish hall meetings, questionnaires, deep-listening sessions; written submissions; family-focused gatherings; summary of findings of assemblies that have already taken place across dioceses; and/or conferences. Parish teams, parish pastoral councils and other parish groups, as well as individual parishioners can make their submissions, in not more than 300 words, via the Bishops Conference webpage: <https://www.catholicbishops.ie/synod/submissions/>

CALENDAR

Wednesday 21st: -St Anselm, bishop and doctor of the Church. St Anselm from Lombardy joined the monastic school at Bec in Normandy in 1059 under the direction of Lanfranc whom he succeeded as Archbishop of Canterbury. He was exiled twice and died in 1109.

Friday 23rd: -St George was venerated as a soldier saint of Lydda in the Holy Land where he was probably martyred round 300. His cult may have been popularised in England and Ireland by returning crusaders. He is patron saint of England, Portugal, of soldiers and the Scout Movement.

St Adalbert born in 956, after being bishop of Prague, went as a missionary among the Prussians on the Polish coast where he was martyred in 997.

Saturday 24th: -St Fidelis of Sigmaringen, 1578-1622 a Capuchin who preached to the Calvinists in Switzerland, where he was killed by a group of extremists.

Thought for The Week

It is a lifelong process to learn, to involve God more in your life and work, and to operate in ways that are effective for your spirit – just like staying fit and healthy physically should be a lifelong priority.
